

Upper Narraguagus River, Maine Sept 2, 2015

16 ft Hemlock Timber Bridge Deck with 2 rows of Concrete Footers (14 footer blocks)

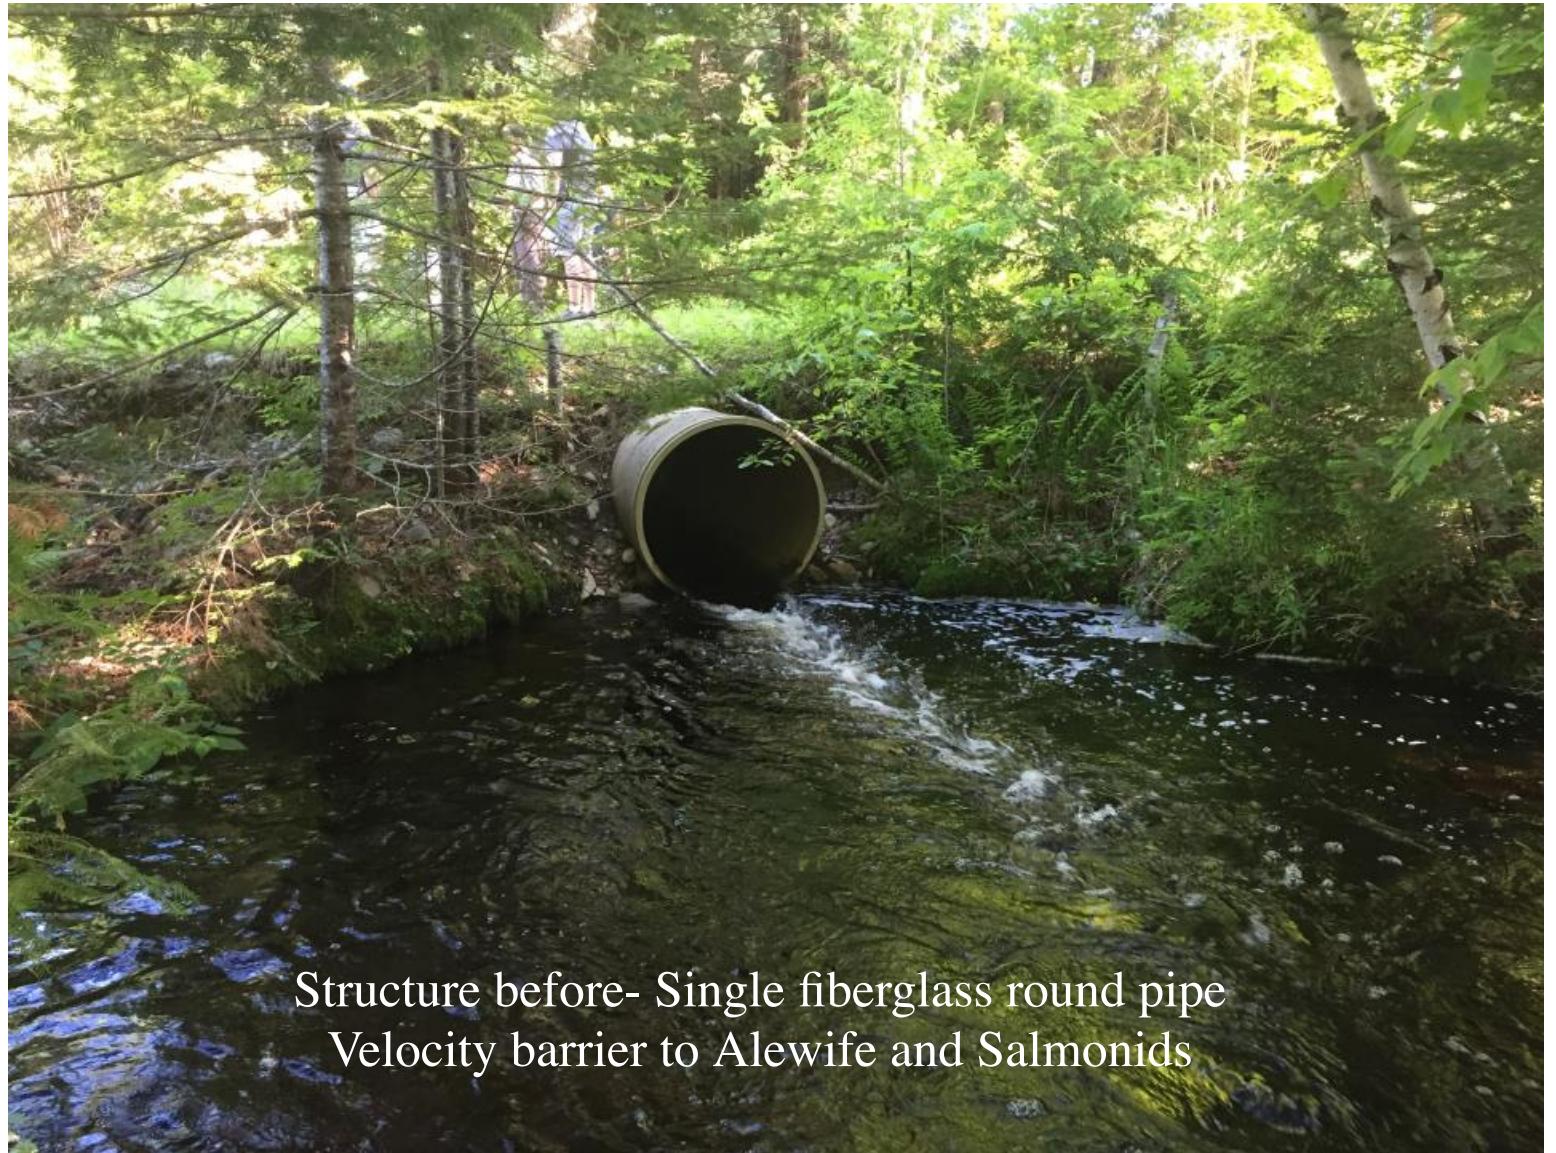

Photo's by Scott
Craig

Northern Stream Tributary (East Machias River) September 2015

Structure before- Single fiberglass round pipe
Velocity barrier to Alewife and Salmonids

Moosehorn
Refuge

Equipment and Operator

Moosehorn
Refuge

Equipment and Operator

After

Befor

e

Old water Control Pipes

Narraguagus

River

Tributary

45:000 Road Culvert Before

June 2014

June 2014

45:000 Road Culvert Looking upstream

45:000
Road

Culvert
Replacement

August
2015

SHARE
USFWS
Fisheries
&
Refuge
Staff

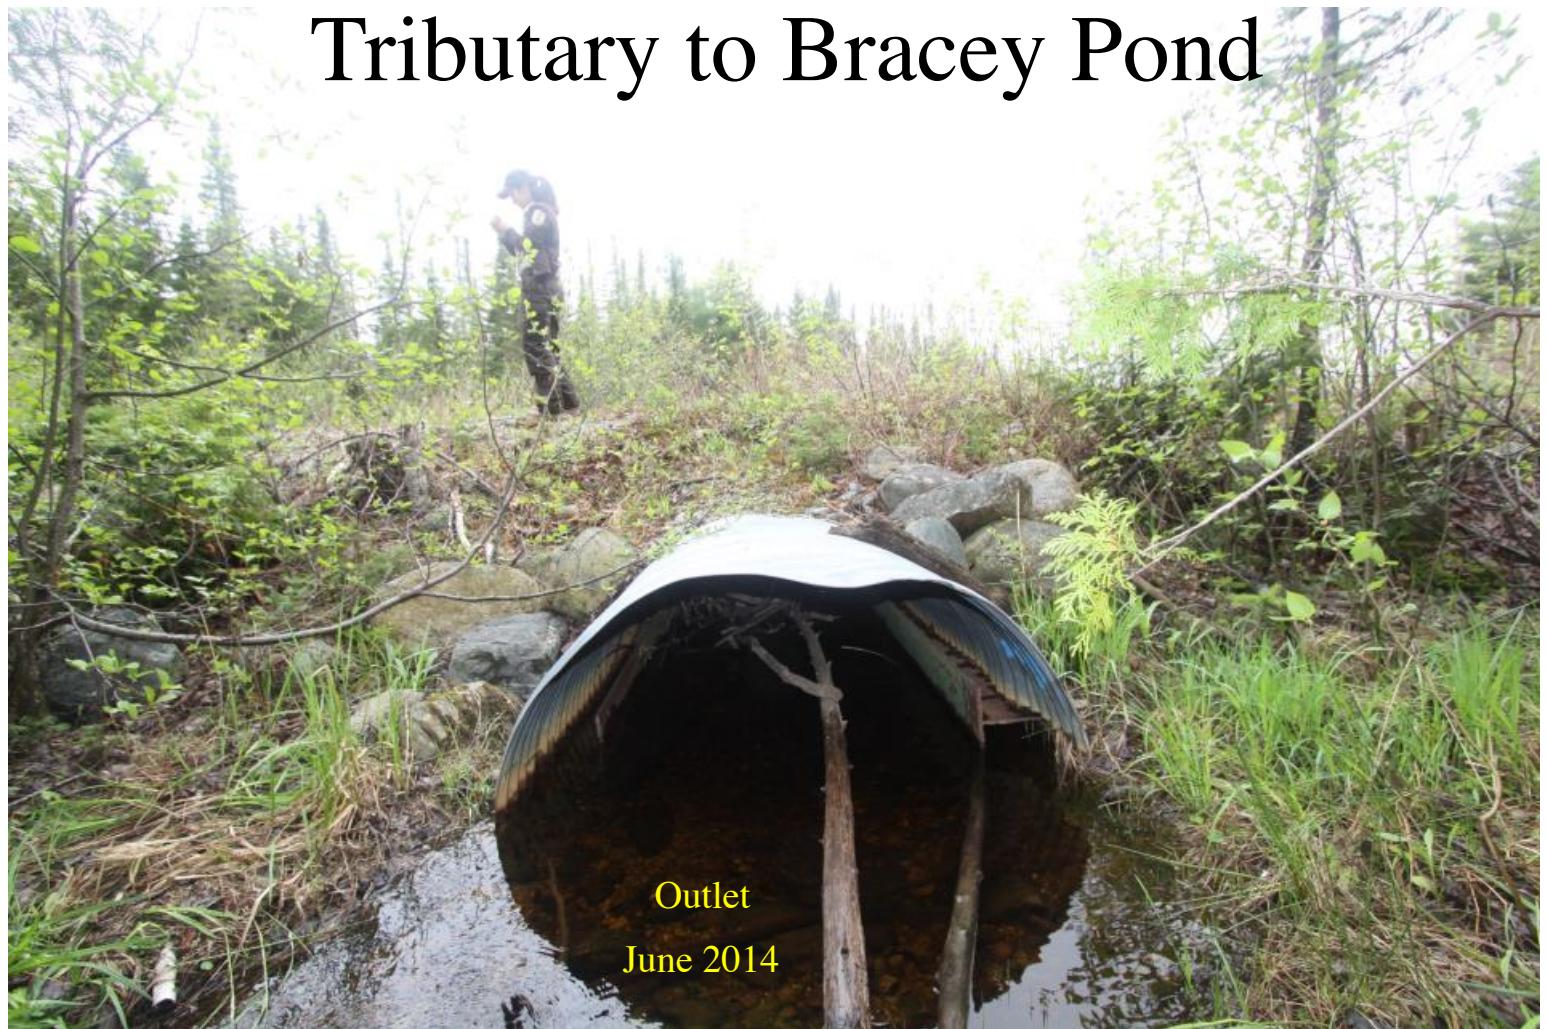

After 8 ft wide open arch

After 45:000
Road

45:000 Spur Road Tributary to Bracey Pond

45:000 Spur Road Tributary to Bracey Pond

Looking upstream June 2014

Start of Construction

Looking down to inlet at start of construction Sept 2, 2015

Looking upstream (Sept 2, 2015)

2015-09-02 8:20:00 AM T

56°F

Before

RECONYX

2015-09-04 3:25:00 PM T

83°F

After

RECONYX